oukami blade online

Hello welcome to my new fic I was busy making new fics and chapters so let begin

Intro

Everesance wake me up inside

I stood up on shaky legs my cloak long since destroyed and my silver and golden armor burning the glass in my visor broke in the middle my right eye bleeding from the glass that flew inside of it I slowly I drew my sword and charged forward with the long sword in hand I quickly sliced it smacked me back I was sent flying through a mountain I quickly charged up a bijuu dama and sent it flying at the monster I smirked victoriously before I felt a sharp pain in my chest I looked down in horror as I saw the creatures arm inside my chest cavity I yanked my helmet off and looked at the creature my left eye glowing an ominous red I then charged up a close quarters bijuu dama I launched it and was sent flying from the explosion I said I heard a scream of horror as I landed I looked up to see hiotomi and the rest I then said my final words to them my helmet stated to shatter I looked at them and said I will always love you I then shattered to glass they looked up as a new constellation was added it was a wolf howling then the moon turned red then a ring appeared then another and another and another then tomoe started to form on the moon before it pulsated then died down and it slowly the moon faded before it the camera slowly zooms into the wolf constellation before words start to fade in
